Dear Mr. Duval:

Thank you very much for your kind comments about my talk before the National Strategy Seminar. I am pleased to hear that you found the Seminar so worthwhile.

I note your patriotic interest in the Freedom Commission Bill which is now up before Congress. This Bill provides for the establishment of an independent agency to be known as the Freedom Commission and it will have six members and a Chairman. Should the Bill become law, it gives the President authority to appoint the commissioners.

I deeply appreciate your expression of appreciation for my brother and it was thoughtful of you to let me know of your feelings.

Sincerely,
